

IWSC Wine & Spirits Judging in Georgia – Armenian Entries

ENTER from
1st October

We are delighted to announce our return to Georgia for the IWSC's third Global Judging event in this country, in partnership with the Gurjaani Wine Festival and National Wine Agency of Georgia. This year, we are once again welcoming entries from Georgia and Armenia. For the first time, in addition to the unique wines of this part of the world, we will also be judging Georgia's and Armenia's diverse spirits.

The IWSC will be bringing to Georgia our industry experts, including wine and spirits judges. Master of Wine & Judging Committee member Sarah Abbott will oversee the wine panel. Our spirits panel will be overseen by internationally renowned sommelier Salvatore Castano. The judging will take place on 25 – 27 November 2025.
